Deborah Swan - McDonald Demonstrator, Thursday May 12th

Deborah Swan-McDonald is a well known member of Valley Watercolor Society. She has exhibited numerous times in our Annual Juried exhibit and given previous demonstrations and workshops. Last month her painting "Teenage Noir" won a Special Honor award in VWS annual juried exhibition.

She has studied and taken workshops with a number of well known master-painters. Some of these teachers are Katherine Liu, Jake Lee, Hal Reed, Zoltan Szabo, Charles Reid, Barbara Nechis and Irving Shapiro. These amazing instructors have helped her to become skilled and find her own path in art. She enjoys portraying the essence of people. Fluid watercolor washes are used to capture the impression of her subjects'. She tries to capture their poses and expressions, alluding to their inner-most feelings, hoping to connect the viewer with them via universal themes.

Gardens and landscapes are also favorite themes. Her first pictorial memories are of the farmlands, streams and forests of the Midwest where she lived as a child. Impressions of those days often appear in her paintings as anything from a rich palette of autumn colors to the cooler colors of a forest stream dappled by light. She has lived in California most of her adult life where there are a limitless variety of landscapes and gardens for inspirations.

Deborah is an instructor of watercolor at Otis College of Art and Design extension classes and also private classes. She is a Juried member of Watercolor West and a signature member of national Watercolor Society.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

May 2016

As I write this, it's still spring. Spring makes me think of new beginnings and a fresh new start for the year; but it is also the beginning of the end of our yearly meetings and workshops. We can take a deep breath after the hectic pressure of showing our work in our yearly exhibit. We've awarded students who excel in the arts, and we are winding down the year.

One of the most important thing to do yet is the election of Officers for your Board. The Board represents you so you must feel comfortable with the people who are running for the open positions. If you feel that you can contribute to our art society, we really need your help. It has been a pleasure working with you these past three years, but it's time to step down and let someone else bring new insights to the organization. Please really consider helping us out for the positions that are open. The May meeting will bring the election of Officers and presentation of the Committee Chairpersons. If you think you can contribute anything to VWS, now is the time for you to contact our Nominating Committee that is made up of Gail Green, Marie Burdick, Joanne Schaeffer and Darlene Libby.

I will end this with yet another congratulations to those of you who were selected to display your art work in our Spring Juried-Member's Exhibit. The show really looks fabulous and those of you who haven't seen it yet should really take the time to visit the exhibit.

See you at the meeting!

Diana Herz

THOUSAND OAKS

ARTS FESTIVAL

The 13th Annual Thousand Oaks Art Festival will be held on September 17 & 18, 2016.

Over the years, this event has become one of the premier outdoor fine art exhibitions in the region and, unquestionably, the best value for artists is a "Silver Level Sponsor" of the Festival, Westlake Village Art Guild members enjoy a substantial discount on booth fees (minimum of $25 for accepted artists). In addition, the WVAG will have a "sponsors" tent that will showcase the work of its dedicated volunteers.

This is a "juried show" with only 52 - 10' x 10' booths available. Artists interested in participating in the 2016 Arts Festival are encouraged to apply early for the lowest fees. In addition, "entry date" is one of the criteria used by the Jury in the evaluation of applicants.

Applications are accepted on-line only through OnLineJuriedShows.com and click on the black box to go directly to the Thousand Oaks Arts Festival's prospectus and entry page.

2016 WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

Workshops start at 9 am go to 4 pm.

Deborah Swan McDonald, Saturday May 21 - My passion is painting character studies of people and the visual delights of nature in watercolor. I enjoy portraying the essence of people. I use fluid watercolor washes to capture the impression of my subjects' poses and expressions, alluding to their innermost feelings, hoping to connect the viewer with them via universal themes. (members $50. / non members $70.)

Iain Stewart - 3 day October 14-15-16, I am most often motivated by capturing a definitive lighting condition and how it influences shape and value rather than faithfully representing the subject as witnessed. Watercolor is uniquely suited for this task as "light" is the reserved white of the paper and must be protected from the first brush strokes and throughout the painting process. (members $225. / non members $285.)

Phyllis Doyon, Friday November 11 - I have always loved to work with watercolor and water media, enjoying the vibrant colors and flow of the paint. Committing to bold color early in the painting keeps the work clean and transparent. This is what gives watercolor its sparkle and life. (members $50. / non members $70.)
